

List of Figures

1.1	Dynamics of the spatial organization: between locational concentration and dispersion	5
1.2	Units of analysis and outcome to be explained	7
1.3	The structure of the study	8
2.1	Entrepreneurship in interaction with its context	22
3.1	Theories on firms and their location related to modes of analysis	27
3.2	Pred's behavioural matrix	29
3.3	Business organization segmentation	34
4.1	Stage model of organizational growth	50
4.2	Organizational Punctuated Equilibrium model	52
4.3	Sequence of development processes in the early life of new firms	55
4.4	Changing importance of the founder-entrepreneur	60
5.1	Original and current main location of the firms	74
6.1	Consideration and realization of locational changes	82
6.2	Multiregional firms, first branch outside the home region	84
6.3	Exit of firms, first move out of the region of origin	85
6.4	Causal model of becoming multiregional	96
6.5	Causal model of exit out of the region	96
7.1	Growth paths of evolving enterprises	128-129
8.1	States in the spatial organization	134
8.2	The four elements of the process model of locational change	138
8.3	Development in time and space	142
8.4	Successive cycles within locational evolution	143
8.5	Locational events	149
9.1	The four elements of the process model of locational change	156
9.2	Locational evolution	157