

CURRICULUM VITAE

Nadya Vinokurova was born in Yakutsk on August 12, 1974. She finished secondary school №2 in Yakutsk in 1991 with a silver medal.

In 1991 she began her studies at the Department of Foreign Languages of the Yakutsk State University graduating with honors in 1996 with the specialization “English language and literature”.

During her undergraduate studies she received two grants: from the American Collegiate Consortium to study at Bowdoin College (Brunswick, Maine) during the academic year of 1994-1995 and from TEMPUS to study for four months in 1996 at l’Institut de Traducteurs, d’Interprètes et de Relations Internationales, Université des Sciences Humaines de Strasbourg.

In the fall of 1996 Nadya enrolled in a two-year postgraduate program at the Institute of Linguistics of the University of Tromsø from which she received her M.Phil. degree in 1998. Her Master’s thesis was entitled “The internal structure of noun phrases in Sakha”.

In September 1998 she started as a Ph.D. student at the Utrecht Institute of Linguistics OTS where she carried out the research that resulted in this dissertation.